

Legacies of Genocide: A Teacher Training Seminar

A professional development seminar examining the legacy of the genocides perpetrated during the 20th century

Monday 27 March 2017
8:45am - 3:30pm

- 8:45 Registration
- 9:00 - 9:45 Challenges and Opportunities: Genocide studies in the classroom panel - Professor Colin Tatz, Professor Konrad Kwiet and Dr Ari Lander
- 9:45 - 10:45 “A Crime Without a Name”: The essential role of survivor and perpetrator testimony in genocide education - Dr Ari Lander
- 10:45 - 11:00 Morning Tea
- 11:00 - 12:00 Finding the Words: Holocaust Survivor Panel
- 12:00-12:45 Lunch
- 12:45-1:30 (Re)Constructing the Past: Specialised tour for teachers of the new permanent Holocaust exhibition - Museum Education Team
- 1:30-2:30 Echoes of Trauma: Genocide Survivors Panel: The Experiences of a Survivor of the Rwandan genocide, of the Cambodian Genocide, and the Aboriginal Stolen Generation
- 2:30-2:45 Afternoon Tea
- 2:45-3:30 Aboriginal History: Rights and freedoms? Present is the past - Professor Colin Tatz

To register for this seminar email alander@sjm.com.au

ATTENDANCE FREE