

George Sternfeld was born on 13 February 1939 in Warsaw, Poland. Hitler invaded Poland on 1 September 1939. On that day his father was in Bialystock on business while he, his brother and his mother were in Warsaw. Hitler and Stalin reached a non aggression pact and divided. Overnight Bialystock became a Russian entity and they were physically separated from their father.

The family landed up in Siberia form 1941-1945, a harch reality for a young boy.

George's book is entitled: From Chocolate to Anzac Biscuits

