

Paul Drexler was born in Slovakia in 1938.

In 1944 he, his mother and grandmother were deported to Terezin Concentration Camp where he was one of only 100 children to survive.

In 1948 he arrived in Australia with his mother, his father having perished in Germany.

A blanket given to me by my father when I was three and travelled with me from Slovakia to Auschwitz and Theresienstadt. It holds a world of memories for me. .

Paul's memoir is: In Search of My Father

